Creating a hunger-free community

December 15, 2005

Dear Friends:

Mark your calendar for Thursday, January 26th, from 6 to 8:30 P.M., for Shrewsbury Day at the Worcester County Food Bank. Come SEE, HEAR and LEARN how to make Shrewsbury Hunger-Free.

SEE how the Food Bank operates by touring their facilities. SEE the displays of local Shrewsbury hunger-relief agencies, such as St. Anne's Human Services and the First Congregational Church of Shrewsbury.

HEAR about the ongoing, coordinated efforts to end hunger in Shrewsbury and throughout Worcester County; a short program will take place at 7 P.M.

LEARN how you, your family and your neighbors can help Shrewsbury become hunger-free.

Plus, enjoy delicious food, renew acquaintances, and meet some new friends.

Shrewsbury Day at the Worcester County Food Bank will energize us to feed hungry people today while we work to create a hunger-free Shrewsbury tomorrow. If you have any questions or would like to RSVP, please call Mike at the Food Bank – 508.842.3663.

See you January 26th. In case of inclement weather, please call first.

Sincerely,
